2 THE CONTRACT AND STATEMENT OF TERMS

- 2.1 These Terms constitute a contract for services between the Employment Business and the Temporary Worker and govern all Assignments undertaken by the Temporary Worker. However, no contract shall exist between the Employment Business and the Temporary Worker after the end of any Assignment and before the start of any subsequent Assignment.
- 2.2 For the avoidance of doubt, these Terms shall not give rise to a contract of employment or a contract of service between (i) the Employment Business and/or Client and (ii) the Temporary Worker. The Temporary Worker is engaged as a worker, although the Employment Business is required to make statutory deductions from their remuneration in accordance with clause 4.1.
- 2.3 By commencing work under an Assignment the Temporary Worker confirms their agreement to provide their services in accordance with these Terms and regardless of whether or not they have been signed.
- 2.4 No variation or alteration of these Terms shall be valid unless the details of such variation are agreed between the Employment Business and the Temporary Worker and set out in writing and a copy of the varied terms is given to the Temporary Worker, no later than the end of the fifth Business Day following the day on which such varied terms were agreed, stating the date on or after which such varied terms shall apply.
- 2.5 These Terms supersede any and all other previous agreements and arrangements (if any) whether written, oral or implied between the parties relating to the services to be provided by the Temporary Worker under an Assignment.
- 2.6 The Client can enforce such provisions of the Terms as are expressed for the benefit of the Client pursuant to the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999. Subject to this clause 2.6 a person who is not a party to the Terms has no right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of the Terms but this does not affect any right or remedy of a third party which exists or is available apart from that Act.
- 2.7 The following is a statement of the terms of your engagement as a worker as required by section 1 of the Employment Rights Act 1996;
- 2.8 Your engager is the Employment Business.
- 2.9 Your engagement commences or commenced on the date set out in Clause 1 above.
- 2.10 No probationary period applies to your contract.
- 2.11 You are engaged as set out in the Vacancy Title and report to the person and/or position set out in Clause 1 above.
- 2.12 Your normal place of work is as stated in the Address set out in Clause 1 above or such other place either the Employment Business or the Client may reasonably determine.
- 2.13 You will not be required to work outside the UK unless otherwise notified and agreed.
- 2.14 You will be paid at the Rate of Pay as stated in Clause 1 above. You will only be paid for the hours/days that you work. You will be paid weekly in arrears directly into your bank or building society account for the hours/days worked in the previous week.
- 2.15 You are not entitled to any non-statutory benefits other than those that may apply pursuant to the Agency Workers Regulations 2010.
- 2.16 You have no normal hours of work and you will be required to work on an "as required" basis. Your hours may vary according to the needs of the Client and your availability to work. The Employment Business will notify you of the days and hours that you will be requested to work in advance of each Assignment.
- 2.17 No training will be provided to you during your Assignment unless otherwise notified to you in writing.
- 2.18 For Holidays please see Clause 5 below.

- 2.20 Termination and notice periods are set out in Clause 10 below.
- 2.21 There are no disciplinary and grievance procedures applicable, but if you are dissatisfied with any decision to terminate an Assignment or you are unhappy with another aspect of your work or working relationship then you should contact your recruitment consultant in the first instance.
- 2.22 You are eligible to be enrolled into a pension scheme. Further details of the pension scheme will be provided to you under separate cover.
- 2.23 There is no collective agreement which directly affects your engagement as a worker.

3 ASSIGNMENTS

- 3.1 The Employment Business will endeavour to obtain suitable Assignments for the Temporary Worker. The Temporary Worker shall not be obliged to accept an Assignment offered by the Employment Business. The failure by the Employment Business to offer suitable Assignments to the Temporary Worker shall not give rise to any liability on the part of the Employment Business. If the Temporary Worker accepts an Assignment they confirm that they are willing to work in the position the Client seeks to fill.

- 3.2 The Temporary Worker acknowledges that the nature of temporary work means that there may be periods when no suitable work is available and agrees that suitability shall be determined solely by the Employment Business and that the Employment Business shall incur no liability to the Temporary Worker should it fail to offer opportunities to work in the above category or in any other category; and that no contract shall exist between the Temporary Worker and the Employment Business during periods when the Temporary Worker is not working on an Assignment.
- 3.3 At the same time as an Assignment is offered to the Temporary Worker, the Employment Business shall inform the Temporary Worker of the identity of the Client, the date the Assignment is to commence and the duration or likely duration of the work and the rate of remuneration that will be paid. The specific details of the Assignment shall be described in Clause 1 of these Terms.
- 3.4 Where such information is not given in paper form or by electronic means it shall be confirmed by such means by the end of the third Business Day following verbal confirmation of the Assignment being made to the Temporary Worker save where the Temporary Worker is being offered an Assignment in the same position as one in which the Temporary Worker had previously been supplied within the previous five Business Days and such information has already been given to the Temporary Worker.
- 3.5 For the purpose of calculating the average number of weekly hours worked by the Temporary Worker on an Assignment, the start date for the relevant averaging period under the Working Time Regulations 1998 shall be the date on which the Temporary Worker commences the Assignment.
- 3.6 The Temporary Worker shall return in good working condition any equipment provided by the Client or at its direction, failing which the Temporary Worker shall be liable to pay the full replacement cost thereof. The Temporary Worker shall not be permitted to utilise any of the Client's equipment for personal use, unless otherwise agreed with the Client and the Employment Business. In the event the Temporary Worker provides any equipment it shall ensure that such equipment is in good working order, fit for purpose and complies with any relevant health and safety testing requirements.

4 REMUNERATION

- 4.1 The Employment Business shall pay to the Temporary Worker the remuneration as shown in Clause 1, which shall not be less than the national minimum wage or national living wage. The actual rate will be notified on a per Assignment basis, for each hour (to the nearest quarter hour) or day worked during an Assignment to be paid weekly in arrears unless otherwise stated in Clause 1, subject to deductions in respect of PAYE Income Tax pursuant to Ss44 to 47 of the Income Tax (Earnings and Pensions) Act 2003 and Class I National Insurance Contributions and any other deductions which the Employment Business may be required by law to make or any sums due from the Temporary Worker to the Employment Business in respect of any over-payments and/or cost of repairing damage to the Client's property. Bank Holiday rates are discretionary. If the Bank Holiday rate is not specified in Clause 1 and an uplifted rate is applicable, where possible the Employment Business will advise the Temporary Worker prior to working the Bank Holiday.
- 4.2 Subject to Clause 5 (regarding statutory leave) and any other statutory entitlement under the relevant legislation, the Temporary Worker is not entitled to receive payment from the Employment Business or Client for time not spent on an Assignment, whether in respect of illness or absence for any other reason unless otherwise agreed.
- 4.3 Unless stated in Clause 1, any expenses incurred by the Temporary Worker during performance of the Assignment shall be at the Temporary Worker's own cost.
- 4.4 Where expenses are payable to the Temporary Worker, they must be set out in Clause 1 and agreed in advance by the Client, supported by valid documentation and submitted to the Employment Business, separately, within 30 days of being incurred. For the avoidance of doubt, the Employment Business shall have no liability for expenses claimed 30 days after being incurred.
- 4.5 The Temporary Worker agrees and acknowledges that timesheets submitted at any time following the termination of the Assignment shall only be paid once verified by the client.
- 4.6 In the event of any over-payment by the Employment Business to the Temporary Worker or repair costs for damage to Client property caused by the Temporary which cannot be recovered from the Temporary Worker by way of deduction pursuant to Clause 4.1, the Temporary Worker shall immediately upon demand repay all outstanding amounts due to the Employment Business.

5 STATUTORY LEAVE

- 5.1 For the purposes of calculating entitlement to leave under this clause, the leave year commences on 1 January of each year. If the Temporary Worker commences or finishes a continuous period of Assignments during a leave year, leave will be calculated as a proportion of the leave year.
- 5.2 Under the Working Time Regulations 1998, the Temporary Worker is entitled to 28 days paid leave per complete leave year (inclusive of bank and public holidays). The Employment Business' leave period is between 1st January and 31st December. Subject to Clause 15.8, the Temporary Worker may be entitled to additional paid or unpaid leave in accordance with the Agency Workers Regulations 2010. In respect of the first 12 months of a continuous period of Assignments the entitlement to leave will accrue at the rate of 1/12 of the annual leave entitlement for each month worked. All entitlement to leave must be taken during the course of the leave year in which it accrues and none may be carried forward to the next leave year. For the avoidance of doubt, where any accrued leave has not been taken in accordance with this Clause 5, the Temporary Worker hereby forfeits any outstanding amounts due. If at the end of a continuous period of Assignments, the Temporary Worker has been paid in respect of holiday taken in excess of their accrued holiday entitlement, the Temporary Worker shall repay to the Employment Business such holiday pay which has been paid but not accrued, and agrees that the Employment Business shall be entitled to deduct from any sums which may be owed to the Temporary Worker the amount of any holiday pay which is due to be repaid to the Employment Business pursuant to this Clause 5.2. The Temporary Worker does not accrue annual leave when they are not working on an assignment and on the termination of the Assignment, the Temporary Worker shall be paid their accrued entitlement to leave with their final pay for the Assignment. Payment of accrued entitlement to annual leave shall be reflected in the Temporary Worker's final payslip following termination of the Assignment.

- 5.3 The amount of the payment to which the Temporary Worker is entitled in respect of such leave is calculated in accordance with and in proportion to the number of hours worked on Assignment. The Temporary Worker shall be paid for such leave when taken, subject to sufficient holiday pay having accrued. Holiday leave can only be taken in full days.
- 5.4 Where the Temporary Worker wishes to take any leave to which they are entitled, they should notify the Employment Business in writing of the dates of their intended absence. The amount of notice which the Temporary Worker is required to give should be at least twice the length of the period of leave that they wish to take. Unless the Employment Business informs the Temporary Worker in writing that it is not possible for them to take leave on the specified dates, the Temporary Worker shall be entitled to take their notified leave entitlement. For the avoidance of doubt, any leave to which the Temporary Worker is entitled should be taken outside of normal rest days. In respect of the first 12 months of a continuous period of Assignments, the Temporary Worker may only take such leave as has accrued in accordance with clause 5.2 above.
- 5.5 Where a Bank Holiday or other public holiday falls during an Assignment the Temporary Worker shall not work (unless required to do so by the Client) on that day and the public holiday shall count as part of the Temporary Worker's paid annual leave entitlement. Where the Client has a closedown/shutdown and this falls during an Assignment, the Temporary Worker shall not work on that day or days (unless required by the Client to do so) and the closedown shall count as part of the Temporary Worker's paid annual leave entitlement.
- 5.6 As an alternative to accrued holiday pay, the Temporary Worker may elect to receive advanced holiday pay. Where the Temporary Worker elects to receive advanced holiday pay, holiday pay shall be paid in the Temporary Worker's weekly pay on account of their entitlement to paid leave under the Working Time Regulations 1998. Such advanced holiday pay shall constitute a pre-payment in respect of paid annual leave. For the avoidance of doubt, where the Temporary Worker elects to receive advanced holiday pay, the Temporary Worker acknowledges and agrees that they will not receive any additional payment when annual leave is taken, as payment for such leave having been paid in advance.
- 5.7 None of the provisions of this clause regarding the statutory entitlement to paid leave shall affect the Temporary Worker's status as a worker.

6 SICKNESS ABSENCE

- 6.1 The Temporary Worker may be eligible for Statutory Sick Pay provided that they meet the relevant statutory criteria.

7 TIMESHEETS

- 7.1 At the end of each week of the Assignment (or at the end of the Assignment where the Assignment is for a period of less than one week or is completed before the end of a week) the Temporary Worker shall either deliver to the Employment Business their timesheet duly completed to indicate the number of hours or days worked by them during the preceding week (or such lesser period) and signed by an authorised representative of the Client, or record all hours completed by such other time recording device as may be dictated by the Client and the Employment Business. Such timesheets, or other time recording device, must be received by the Employment Business no later than 5.30pm on Tuesday following the week to which they relate, or such other period as notified to the Temporary Worker by the Employment Business.
- 7.2 Subject to Clause 7.3 the Employment Business shall pay the Temporary Worker for all hours or days worked regardless of whether the Employment Business has received payment from the Client for the sums being claimed.
- 7.3 Where the Temporary Worker fails to submit a properly authenticated timesheet, or other time recording device, the Employment Business shall, in a timely fashion, conduct further investigations into the hours claimed by the Temporary Worker and the reasons that the Client has refused to sign a timesheet, or other time recording device, in respect of those hours. This may delay any payment due to the Temporary Worker. The Employment Business shall make no payment to the Temporary Worker for hours not worked.
- 7.4 For the avoidance of doubt and for the purposes of the Working Time Regulations, the Temporary Worker's working time shall only consist of those periods during which he is carrying out their activities or duties for the Client as part of the Assignment. Time spent travelling to the Client's premises, lunch breaks and other rest breaks shall not count as part of the Temporary Worker's working time for these purposes. This Clause 7.4 is subject to any variation set out in Clause 1, or any subsequent variation, which the Employment Business may make for the purpose of compliance with the Agency Worker's Regulations 2010.
- 7.5 The Temporary Worker acknowledges and accepts that it could be a criminal offence under the Fraud Act 2006 to dishonestly make a false representation concerning the hours worked.
